Activities Building Named And Dedicated

February 17th was a memorable occasion for the Barium family for it was on that night that the new activities building was dedicated to the memory of the former superintendent, Dr. Joseph B. Johnston. This dedication service marked the full fruition of the plans that had been in the making since the breaking of ground for the building. In preparation for the event the Board of Regents had ordered that the building be named in memory of Dr. Johnston, that the desk and chair used by him for so many years be placed in the office of the building, and that a suitable bronze plaque be inscribed and mounted in the lobby of the building.

The ceremony took place as a part of the evening's program including a double-header basketball game with the Mooresville High School. Albert B. McClure, superintendent of the Home, presided and made the official dedicatory statements, R. G. Calhoun, principal of the school, and for more than twenty years associated with Dr. Johnston in the work at Barium, spoke in tribute to him, and Reverend Charles H. Sides, pastor of the church, led in the prayer of dedication.

The appropriate bronze plaque mounted in the lobby bears the following inscription:

ERECTED TO THE GLORY OF GOD
AND DEDICATED TO THE MEMORY OF
JOSEPH B. JOHNSTON
SUPERINTENDENT 1922-1949
HE BELIEVED ATHLETICS TO BE A VALUABLE MEANS OF DEVELOPING GOOD CITIZENS

"An Athlete Is Not Crowned Unless He Competes According To The Rules."
II Timothy, 2:5.

The students of the Home particularly enjoyed having the members of the Johnston family on the campus in the afternoon and many friends present with them for supper in the large dining room. Mrs. Johnston, coming from Charlotte, Leila from Elkins, West Virginia, and William Lee Davidson Johnston from New Albany, Indiana, were present together with friends and relatives who lived near enough to attend.

Among these were Professor and Mrs. Chalmers Davidson, Dr. and Mrs. Frontis Johnston, Dr. and Mrs. W. G. McGavock, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Hartness, Mr. and Mrs. Heath Whittle, and Mr. James Lore, all of Davidson. Mr. Sidney Abernethy and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Marion of Charlotte, Reverend and Mrs. Stacy Farior of Concord, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Schrumm of Newton, and Dr. and Mrs. R. J. McMullen of Chapel Hill. Other friends from the Barium community, Statesville and Mooresville joined these at the evening ceremony at the activities building in making the occasion a delightful one

Season Ended For Basketball

The activities building assigned to the sport of basketball for the past few months is now ready to be turned over to the groups for other activities. The season ended with a fair record for both boys and girls. The girls tied the Children's Home for fourth place in conference standings. This standing remained permanent, but these two teams played each other to see which would represent the fourth place in the South Piedmont Tournament. The Children's Home won by four points and Barium had no entry in the tournament this year.

The Junior basketball teams have had few games with nearby schools and have now concluded this sport. The Junior tournament is no longer allowed and, therefore, is not anticipated as a part of the sports program this Winter.

The remaining item now is the big one - namely, the basketball banquet which is scheduled for Friday night, March 27th.

Arthur Hanks Is New Dairyman

Newcomers to the campus are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hanks and their daughter who is a senior in high school. Mr. Hanks will be the new supervisor of the dairy. His background ably qualifies him to render particular service to the Home. He has had wide experience in dairy operations with the Holstein herd, both in North Carolina and Maryland. In addition to his experience in milk production, Mr. Hanks has also been engaged in beef production and has also had several years experience in meat-cutting and freezer-locker operation. It, therefore, seems that Mr. Hanks is ideally qualified to serve Barium Springs in the production of milk for use at the table and in developing a beef herd which is so sorely needed to replace the heavy diet of pork, and also if and when a freezer locker can be built, to give expert attention to the care of meat.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanks come highly recommended, not only in their particular field of service, but also in character and disposition. Members of the Barium family are looking forward to having these folk as a part of the campus life.

Operetta Given By Elementary School

Members of the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades under the direction of their teachers, Miss Stevenson, Miss Brandon, and Miss Troutman, together with the help of Mrs. Lee Spencer of the Music Department, delightfully entertained the student body and friends of Barium Springs as they presented "Aunt Drusilla's Garden."

The cast of characters included:

Aunt Drusilla Rogers - A Prim Spinster — Judy Bolton

Aunt Prudence Rogers - Her Sister — Barbara Porter

Nelda Alvenia Podger - Their Niece — Celia Donaldson

Pat - The Gardener — Boyuer Shaver

Bob - Leader of the Gang — Richard Blackburn

Tad - Member of the Gang — Charles Roberts

Tiny Little - Member of the Circle — Virginia Lane

Susan - Member of the Circle— Beverly McClure

The other members of the grades filled in with Bob's

Physical Examinations Now Completed

The physical examinations which were halted in January by the flu epidemic have now been completed. Dr. W. T. MacLauchlin from Conover and Dr. John Lafferty from Hickory were teamed up again this year to give every child on the campus a general physical check-up. Their findings and recommendations have been charted and plans are already underway to carry out each recommendation made by these doctors.

Tonsils and adenoids were still offenders and so quite a large number will be ready for removal of these. Some minor skin irritations, a few suggestions for overweight and underweight, with one or two recommendations for further consultations with specialists in the field of the ailments constitute the findings of the doctors.

Both Dr. MacLauchlin and Dr. Lafferty concur in the opinion that the general health of the student body at Barium Springs is above the average.

Dental Program Well Underway

The new and happy expression of the campus is "The dentists are coming." The student body is getting accustomed to the regular visits of Doctors Coffey, Abernethy, and Isenhower. For the last two months these men have been coming regularly to the campus to make a complete study of the teeth of all the children in order that they might put into effect the program of dental care which had been devised by them and the interested dentists of Statesville. The dental room at Barium Springs is now fully equipped and stocked to do complete dental service.

In the first round which has just been concluded these doctors have given careful consideration to each child and the conditions have been charted and the cavities have been diagramed in a card system easily accessible for any person who operates in the room.

This analysis reveals the following conditions: Of the 235 patients examined there were 25 children who had no need for dental work. There were 67 patients for extractions with 102 extractions made. 210 children had decayed teeth - the total number of for all of the Barium family and the friends and loved ones of Dr. Joe.

The boys and girls did their part in scoring a double victory over the teams from Mooresville.

This building will serve manifold purposes on the campus in supplying adequately for basketball games and basketball practice, in ample space for skating, and with the public address system and record player in affording a place for folk games and square dances. It will also be a grand place for rainy day activities. The basement of the building houses good dressing rooms for both boys and girls of the Home and also dressing rooms for the visiting teams. There is ample storage space, and a physical education room on each side in the basement which is dry and well-lighted. Everybody at Barium Springs is not only delighted with the new building but proud to have a place where the needs of the student body can be met so adequately.

A TRIBUTE TO DR. JOSEPH B. JOHNSTON . . . .

By R. G. Calhoun

This is a great occasion and I feel very humble as I stand before you. Words within themselves are inadequate to describe properly the noble influence of a man of so great a stature. Time will not permit the putting together of phrases to do justice to his memory. People from far and near have recognized his influence, and boys and girls who have come and gone through the years have been blessed by it.

Strong in body and big in heart, Mr. J. B. Johnston loved every form of sport. He participated in varsity athletics while a student at Davidson College, and he played tennis, basketball, and softball with us here on the campus at Barium. No alumni group was complete without his presence whether at Davidson or at Barium Springs. He had a remarkable memory and could tell of the skill and prowess of athletes of bygone days.

He was identified with an honorable program of sports throughout the whole state, and he was ever ready to organize and promote programs of recreation for children and high school groups as well as for college men and women. The influence of his hand and the impetus of his spirit were felt throughout the state. He was secretary of the Western N. C. High School Activities Association for a number of years and in that capacity kept the records and furnished good publicity without remuneration. He was the "Daddy Rabbit" of the very popular Junior Mid-Piedmont double elimination basketball tournament. Several members of the visiting Mooresville varsity teams here tonight played in that tournament some years ago, and I believe they were champions on that occasion.

As for Barium Springs itself, he recognized the fact that a good program of athletics was indispensable in the life of the boys and girls of the Home. He believed in thorough preparation for the contest and hard clean fought competition in every game. It was a means of developing good citizens by playing the game according to the rules. Athletics in the highest form and type were his ideal.

It was a pleasure for Mr. Johnston to follow the activities of the boys and girls after they left Barium. He was identified with the athletic program at Davidson College and liked especially to see Barium boys on that team. He was always on hand to give a pat on the back or a word of encouragement when it was most needed. Some of the college coaches would invite him to sit on the bench during a big game because of the boost in morale for the men.

Let me recount a week-end that was somewhat typical in showing his interest in the game. We would see our own varsity game here at Barium on Friday afternoon, and then go on a scouting trip that night; and, believe me, Mr. J. B. was one of the finest scouts in the country as he would always come up with an idea to pull on the opposition the following week. Then, there would be Junior games to attend early Saturday morning. On this particular week-end we left the Junior games and went down to Durham for the Georgia Tech-Duke game as there was a Barium boy on the Tech team. We went on over to Raleigh for a game Saturday night in which Barium boys were playing. It was late in the night when we returned to the campus at Barium Springs and I was just about exhausted, but Mr. Johnston was up on the campus bright and early the next morning. I attended his Sunday School class that morning and heard one of the finest lessons ever taught.

And then, I remember the trip to Charlottesville, Va., when we defeated the Charlottesville team for the National Championship in the 125-pound division. That game was played on a frozen field before three thousand fans, and I believe that there are one or two boys present tonight who played on that team. After the game, Mr. J. B. took a plane back to Greensboro to watch our varsity upset a favored Greensboro high school team by one touchdown.

All of the delight and pleasure of Mr. Johnston in athletics was founded basically upon the concept that it was a means to an end. Skill in athletics was not the final accomplishment. He believed it to be the means of developing good citizenship, an incentive for students to stay in school, and a means of building stronger character. He believed it to be the means of wholesomely employing our energies, the means of developing a strong body to house a strong mind in order that boys and girls might become pillars of strength in the community and in the Kingdom of God.

We are thankful for the life of Dr. Joseph B. Johnston, and we shall endeavor to perpetuate his ideals in the future.

Catechism Awards Made To Five

At the morning service on the second Sunday in March some of the boys of Lees Cottage proved that the girls of Howard were not the only ones who could learn and recite the Catechism. Copies of the New Testatment, together with certificates, were awarded to Douglas Byrd, Buddy Cochran, Kenneth Joyner, and Richard McArthur. These four boys, studying under their housemother, Miss Neely Ford, had recited the introduction to the Shorter Catechism to the minister, thus making them eligible for the awards which they received.

In addition to these four boys, Betty Lou Johnson, a member of the sophomore class, received a copy of the Bible and the certificate for having recited the Shorter Catechism a few weeks earlier. These accomplishments will be a challenge to the other students to join the ranks of those who have their Testaments and Bibles for recitations of the two Catechisms.

COTTAGE NEWS

We have been skating on our sidewalk for the last few days.

We had 14 students at Howard who made the honor roll last month. We have been working hard in school, and we are busy with our work.

We were glad to have you to come to our operetta last month. The main characters were Barbara Porter as Aunt Prudence and Judy Bolton as Aunt Drusilla. We also had the children's group, the pansies, the daisies, and Bob's gang. The children at Howard were in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades were the ones who gave the operetta.

Some people in Statesville gave us four show tickets each for Christmas. We went to see The Stooge, My Pal Gus, Seeds of Destruction, and Robin Hood. We were also invited to a ministrel show in Statesville.

—Ella Mae Moose

Synod Cottage

You may not hear from us very often, but we're still around and making progress.

"May I have some newspaper?" "May I have some sticky paper?" These are just some of the questions that are being heard since the March winds have brought out kites. Boy, you should see the kites we make. They look almost as good as the ones in the store. We had rather make them because it gives us something to do.

Kenny Davis, from Wilmington, N. C. has come to live with us. We are very happy to have him and hope he will be very happy here at Barium. With his coming that makes us an even two dozen.

If you see a red streak fly by, it's us in our new wagon that was a gift from some of our friends. On pretty days we enjoy riding in it very much.

How many of you have seen "The Stooge," with Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis? We saw it and it was so funny that we were still laughing when we got home.

These days we don't feel much like any work, since the weather has been warm and the flowers have started blooming. One thing we can say though is that we made good grades on our report cards. Six of us made the honor roll, they were Gene Taylor, Charles Roberts, Richard Hicks, Albert Edwards, Johnny McNicholas and our big girl, Louise Bradshaw. Keep up the good work!

We hope you'll be hearing from us again next month.

—The Wigglers.

Annie Louise Cottage

Since nothing much has happened this month we'll have to start by saying that its really raining here today. We can't be still in thehouse, we're yearning to be outside again in the Spring weather. We love to dig in the dirt around our flowers and gardens in our play woods. Right now it looks like all of our flowers are going to getwashed away.

During some of the pretty sunshiney days we had our pictures taken for the annual. We like to have them taken.

Another big group of us are ready to recite the Catechism anytime now. We are proud to say that almost every one has recited the "Child's Catechism" and that many have begun to work on the "Shorter" and larger catechism. We really are pretty smart girls. There were many on the honor roll again this last time. One of our big girls made it. We have been hinting for a party. We guess the reason for our other big girl not making it is that she has been making up poems since her English class has been studying poetry. She has written some good ones. That's the only reason we are excusing her.

teeth being 1,215, involving also 1,755 surfaces. There are at least six crowns to be made and as many partials necessary. Eight children have deciduous teeth and 48 had deciduous surfaces. A number of the children show a need for orthodontia.

The second phase of the program was launched on Wednesday night, March 11th, when the dentists met at Barium Springs for a supper meeting and assigned themselves special days at Barium when they will visit the campus and give service to the children's teeth. In addition to that, plans were made for the securing of a person to spend the Summer on the campus, working under the direction of dentists in Statesville and also those assisting in this program. Those attending the meeting on March 11th were Doctors Coffey of Morganton, Abernethy of Hickory, Kirk, father and son, from Salisbury, Cook from Lenoir, Pratt from Salisbury, Isenhower from Newton. These men will continue to carry on this program in the name of the Church and for the benefit of the boys and girls of Barium Springs.

Members of the Senior Home Economics Class with their teacher, Mrs. Melba McLuen, get some tips on house furnishings as they visited the Johnston Furniture Company in Statesville.
